Hello All,

Classic English April weather greeted us for the walk to kick off our 21st anniversary celebrations. However, this did not deter the marvellous number of 27 gathering at Stockgrove Country Park where we enjoyed a leisurely stroll/wheelchair ride/buggy ride round the lake. After our last MG walk (expedition!) it seemed rather tame leaving us wanting more. So an advance party lead us up and over the hill to see the sundial. Fortunately the righteous were there and the sun illuminated the said time piece - all we needed was a volunteer to act as the big hand and who better than Hilary. As with a lot of my [Simon] comments the sun went over her head, but thanks for being a good sport Hilary nonetheless. After some contemplation and adding an hour we were in need of refreshment. So off to the Cock Hotel, where we had a leisurely lunch and celebrated our "coming of age" with a cake and candles. We hope a good time was had by all.

Some ideas for days out etc - let me know what you think.

- Regency Run (Brighton) - Sun 14 May - double up as an early seaside run ?
- Chiltern Hills Vintage Rally, Aston Clinton - Sunday 21 May? [For those not going on club holiday]
- Do we want to go to the Grand Day out at Burford again this year? Event is on Sunday 4th June.
- An evening at the Flying Proms, Shuttleworth on Saturday 12 August? Or one of their other evening displays?
- Sunday afternoon Greyhound racing at Henlow or Milton Keynes.
- Seaside run - when? where to?
- Next year's holiday - when? where to?
