Hello All,

Steph sends her thanks and appreciation of the lovely flowers we sent to her following her stay in hospital, and for the good wishes expressed.

House of Lords on Bastille Day and a trial of Perkins the Younger on Friday.

New member John and his wife Linda joined us at the White Horse at Southall on Pub Night. We hope to see you both many more times.

Classics on the Common, last Wednesday was another brilliant success for the organisers. They are already in discussions with the Town Council and the Police for next year's event.

Last Month's Events

The main event for July was our French trip to the Chateau Le Mont Epinguet in Normandy. Glyn & Lynda, Rod & Lynne (N. Yorks branch) and Hilary and myself met up in Portsmouth on the Monday evening for a meal at The Black Dog, where we were joined by Paul & Sheila. The trio Perkins & Tracy travelled overnight to view the sunrise over Cherbourg. Paul & Ann, Dave & Carol and John & Mary spent 3 days in the Loire Valley before travelling to the Chateau. The last to arrive was Peter Gibbens on his motor bike. Alas he suffered a guilt complex for leaving Janet at home and returned to the UK on the Friday. The holiday took the usual format of trips around the sites of Normandy, during the day followed by evenings of nonsense in the library. This included an evening with the
