Hello All,
The West Yorkshire branch (and Beds affiliates) have been busy obtaining info' for next year's holiday, based around the Northern National Event. See separate sheet for more details. As an average figure, it will cost around £400 per couple for B&B for the week. The general idea is to start with the Harrogate event and then move to a central location for trips to the moors, coast and wherever. We can discuss plans this evening, but will need know who is going by the next meeting.

most suitable "goodies" devised by the competitions department. At the end of the session, we were provided with comprehensive hand outs, based on BMC official training literature. Altogether it made for £10 well spent.

Sunday 14th and 4 cars met at the Flying Horse a final run of the year. We took a gentle 50 mile cruise around Bedfordshire, arriving at the "Old Farm" in Totternhoe around 1:30, for a Sunday roast lunch. Drinks night was at The Star at Peter's Green. It was good to see Pete Gibbons there. (Now we know he got back from France OK.)

Last Month's Events

A last minute change of plans by the Cross Keys, meant that there was a firework display here on 5th November. So a number of us came over early for a meal, followed by an ample firework display in the field to the rear. Then back to the restaurant for coffee. All very civilized. Recommended for next year.

On the next day, Dave A, Glyn and I attended an MG Focus day given by the MG Car Club at Abingdon. The main speaker was an ex BMC training officer. His detailed knowledge of MGB repair and maintenance procedures was immense. Another speaker, was he head of "Special Projects" with responsibility for marketing the
