Hello All,

Congratulations to Graham and Sheila on the birth of their first granddaughter:

Emma Rachel. Emma was born during our last club meeting and the necessary formalities were duly observed. On the following Friday Hilary and I became grandparents (again) on the birth of Leah Rose.

Well our French Trip is nearly upon us. Thank you Lynda and Glyn for your hospitality at our planning evening. Remember: Bastille Night Dinner (Tuesday) will be in Tux.

Another, highly secret planning meeting took place at an undisclosed location in Hitchin. Details are not complete, but keep the evening of August 14th free.

Houghton Conquest Display

host's garden and a lovely array of cars on display. Simon and Tracy went on this year's Ratae Run. Tracy reports:

"It was a very enjoyable run through the Leicestershire countryside. Stopping at the sites of the battle of Naseby and battle of Bosworth. We stretched our legs and walked the battlefields at Bosworth where Richard III lost his crown. Tracy drove the route with Simon navigating - she only struggled to find the right gear a couple of times and had to swerve to miss a cow that was roaming loose along one of the lanes! Coffee stops on route are recommended and a racing green MGB GT passed us on numerous occasions going in the opposite direction - not sure who that reminded us of..."

Last Month's Events

June kicked off with the Houghton Conquest Open day. Having laid down the law on prompt time keeping for this event: I was not just late; but totally forgot the event was on. Even a text from Simon didn't remind me. However it turned out a very pleasant afternoon, with a picnic in our

This Month's Events

Unfortunately our trip will conflict with most of the July events that might have been of interest: i.e.- Watford fairlands Classic on 11th and Sporting Bears and Surrey on 18th. So how about a BBQ towards the end of the month?

Also do we want a Seaside run this year? If so where and when. And of course:

Tues. 20th> Pub Night.

White Horse at Southill.

Wed 28th Classics on the Common
