Hello All,

Firstly, thank you to Geoff for all his efforts in "steering" the Club over the last four years. Tracy and I hope to keep up the good work and keep the Club a fun "institution" to be part of.

Any ideas of days out, events worth attending etc, please let us know.

Rob Davies (former LDMGOC secretary) has suggested those going on this year's holiday have a look at www.enjoygower.com.

Last Month's Events

Stoneleigh ended up being a non-event for us this year, no doubt the Malt & Shovel felt the pinch at the loss of business !

A good time was had by all at Dave's 60th birthday party - good company, food and dance made for an enjoyable, fun evening.

We understand a few of you ventured to the Fox at Pirton for the drinks night.

This Month's Events

Tue 21st March

Pub Night

Lilley Arms, Lilley

Sun 2nd April

21st Birthday Lunch

How does a walk round Stockgrove Park followed by lunch at The Cock Hotel (Heath & Reach) sound? Suggest meeting at the Visitors Centre, Stockgrove Park at 12 noon with lunch at 1.30pm. (Carol - path around the lake is wheelchair friendly as is the restaurant.)

Diary Dates 2006

20th May - 27th May - Club Holiday to the Gower Peninsula - booked

11th June - Luton Festival of Transport, 10am - 5pm, Stockwood Park, admission £3 per adult, £1 children, £7 family.

Notes

Please let Simon know ASAP if you can make 21st Birthday Lunch on Sunday 2 April.

Next meeting 4th April
